Home Sweet Home Bookstack

Provided in the kits:

- 3 hardback books
- White acrylic paint
- Paint brush
- Jute twine
- “Home Sweet Home” vinyl transfer

You will also need:

- Scissors
 - A library card or other straight edge (to help transfer your vinyl)
 - Paper to cover your workspace
1. Lay the books flat on the table with the spines facing you. Determine which order you would like your books to be stacked.
 2. Paint the top and spine of each book.
 - Allow to dry completely.
 - You may need 2-3 coats for full coverage.
 3. Run the edge of your library card firmly over each vinyl transfer to ensure the lettering is securely in place.
 4. Slowly peel the paper backing from one of the transfers, making sure the vinyl lettering stays on the clear transfer paper.
 - Place the word approximately 1/2 inch from the end of the book, and apply the clear transfer paper and vinyl lettering to the spine.
 - Press down firmly to adhere the vinyl lettering to the book.
 - Run the edge of your library card firmly over the clear transfer paper to ensure the vinyl lettering is securely adhered to the book.
 - Slowly peel the clear transfer paper off, leaving the wording behind.
 5. Repeat Step 4 for the other two books and vinyl transfers.
 6. Stack the books in order and display on a table or shelf.

Optional: Use the provided jute twine or ribbon of your choice to tie the books into a stack. Add embellishments such as flowers or seasonal décor if desired.
